

4 Thoughts

First line by Rumi, others by Belinda McArdle 2013

About the Song

This song came about after a long time of staring at the page uninspired. I began to read some poetry and found the first line of this piece which was written by Sufi poet Rumi. I agree totally with this line and decided to extend the idea by adding my three thoughts.

C F Bb Am
Be with those who help – your being
C Em F Bb
Sing on the breath of a life ever-deepening
Am F Am Am
Heart be in pieces if that keeps you beating
Bb F C
Let the leaves of your love be green and greening
