

HEARTY AND HALE

© Belinda McArdle 2014

May you be healthy and may you be hearty and hale, hearty and hale
hearty and hale, hearty and hale
For the world has in store,
all that you dream of and more
For the world has in store,
all that you dream of and more
Hearty and hale, hearty and hale

Born a bag of bones
To be saint or vagabond
To paint or sail along
We were all babes once, we were all babes once,
we were all babes
hearty and hale

CHORUS

Born to the unknown
To adventure, to find home
To scatter seeds and sow
We were all babes once, we were all babes once,
we were all babes
hearty and hale

*Untread paths lay at your feet Love to fathom, souls to greet
But an instant in earth's seat
We were all babes – tiny and brave – Tiny and brave – we were all babes*

CHORUS

Let me cradle now your precious heart x 4
